T&M™

On that same day two of the disciples were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and they were talking to each other about all the things that had happened.

As they talked and discussed, Jesus himself drew near and walked along with them; they saw him, but somehow did not recognize him. Jesus said to them, “What are you talking about, back and forth, as you walk along?”

They stood still, with sad faces. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, “Are you the only man... who does not know what has been happening...?” “What things?” he asked.

“The things that happened to Jesus of Nazareth,” they answered. “This man was a prophet, and was considered by God and by all the people to be mighty in words and deeds. Our chief priests and rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and he was nailed to the cross. And we had hoped that he would be the one to redeem Israel!”

NOTES

[illegible]

PRACTICAL WORK

- Stop doubting and believe, handing over all your life to Christ, obeying all that He has commanded.
- Destroy every book, amulet, object associated with magic or the occult, and anything whatever related to another religion. (The Lord demands our entire loyalty.) Renounce any past contact with these things, and ask the Lord to free you from any evil influence from these activities.
- Put into practice your repentance: for example, ask for forgiveness from anyone you may have offended, help the needy, return stolen objects, own up to any lies you have told, or correct any gossip you have spread, etc.
- Using the illustration, tell your family and friends the story of Jesus' appearing to His disciples, after His resurrection.

“...Some of the women of our group surprised us; they went at dawn to the grave, but could not find his body. They came back saying they had seen a vision of angels who told them that he is alive...”

Then Jesus said to them: “How foolish you are, how slow you are to believe everything the prophets said! Was it not necessary for the Messiah to suffer these things and enter his glory?”

And Jesus explained to them what was said about him in all the Scriptures, beginning with the books of Moses and the writings of all the prophets...

He sat at the table with them, took the bread and said the blessing; then he broke the bread and gave it to them. Their eyes were opened and they recognized him; but he disappeared from their sight. They said to each other “Wasn’t it like a fire burning in us when he talked to us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?”

They got up at once and went back to Jerusalem, where they found the eleven disciples gathered together with the others and saying, “The Lord is risen indeed! He has appeared to Simon!”

While they were telling them this, suddenly the Lord himself stood among them and said to them, “WHY ARE YOU TROUBLED? WHY ARE THESE DOUBTS COMING UP IN YOUR MINDS? Look at my hands and my feet and see that it is I, myself. Feel me, and you will see, because a ghost doesn’t have flesh and bones, and you can see I have.” (Luke 24:13-53)

In this Bible passage, Jesus’ disciples are troubled and frightened.

What does Jesus comment on? (Look at the phrases in larger print in the text.)

Answer: Their doubts, and troubled minds, about what God’s Word clearly teaches.

Jesus Christ has risen from the dead, proving that He is truly God and truly man.

LEARN BY HEART

“These have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through this faith you may have life in his name.”

(John 20:31)

This verse says that this Jesus who rose from the dead is the Messiah and the Son of _____.

What will you receive when you believe in Him?
