LEARN BY HEART

“Then he took the bread, giving thanks to God, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in memory of me.’”

(Luke 22:19)

PRACTICAL WORK

- Participate regularly in the Lord’s Supper with your church, and keep in close communion with Christ every day.
- Tell your family or friends Jesus’ illustration of the vine.

(The apostle Paul said) “For from the Lord I received the teaching that I passed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took the bread, gave thanks to God, broke it, and said, ‘This is my body, which is for you. Do this in memory of me.’ In the same way, he took the cup after the supper and said, ‘This cup is God’s new covenant, sealed with my blood. Whenever you drink it, do it in memory of me.’ For until the Lord comes, you proclaim his death whenever you eat this bread and drink from this cup.”

“It follows, then, that if anyone eats the Lord’s bread or drinks from his cup in a way that dishonors him, he is guilty of sin against the Lord’s body and blood. So then, everyone should examine himself first, and then eat the bread and drink from the cup. For if he does not recognize the meaning of the lord’s body when he eats the bread and drinks from the cup, he brings judgment on himself as he eats and drinks. (1 Corinthians 11:23-29)

What does the bread in the Lord’s Supper mean?

And the cup?

According to the scripture reading, what do we do before taking the bread and the cup, to partake worthily?

The Lord's Supper speaks of the communion we have with, and in, Christ. (1 Corinthians 10:16-17) We maintain this communion when we walk in obedience to His commandments.

Christ said that He was the vine, and we the branches.
According to Him, what must we do to bear much fruit?

What happens if we do not remain in Him?

The fruit we produce is the result of obedience, in love, to His commands.

Let us review the seven basic commands of the Lord Jesus Christ for His disciples:

1. Turn from sin, believe and receive the Holy Spirit
(Mark 1:15, John 20:22))
2. Be baptized (Matthew 28:19)
3. Love (Matthew 22:37-39)
4. Celebrate the Lord's Supper (Luke 22:19-20)
5. Pray (Matthew 6:9-13)
6. Give (Luke 6:38)
7. Make Disciples (Matthew 28:19)

Which of these commandments is the most important? _____

Jesus said, "If you love me, you will obey my commandments."
(John 14:15)
